The LAJC Proudly Presents the 2018 Community Seder
Saturday, March 31, 5:30pm
Pig & Fig Restaurant in White Rock

Come join us to celebrate the second night of Passover with a great story, great food, socializing, and Afikomen prizes for young children. Rabbi Deborah Brin of Albuquerque will lead the Seder. The Community Seder will be catered by Laura Hamilton of Pig & Fig at her restaurant in White Rock (35 Rover Blvd).

Menu:
- ➢ Openers: Fruit & veggies plate, house made trout and salmon gefilte fish terrine with red and white horseradish, Roasted chicken matzo ball soup
- ➢ Entrees (one of the following): Orange and fennel roasted cod, sweet potato kugel, grilled asparagus; Slow-braised kosher beef short ribs, sautéed baby spinach, rosemary roasted red potatoes; Red quinoa, olive oil roasted tomatoes, grilled spring vegetables, lemon basil vinaigrette
- ➢ Dessert: Flourless chocolate torte, mandarin orange glaze, fresh raspberries

(Gluten-free option will be available for anyone requesting it)

Cost: Please make checks payable to LAJC Community Seder
- ➢ $30 per adult LAJC member
- ➢ $40 per adult non-member
- ➢ $10 member children 5-12 years old; $20/non-member children; no charge for children 4 years old and under
- ➢ Financial assistance is available through the LAJC– no one should miss the Seder for financial reasons! Contact Sy Stange at religiouschair@lajc.org.

We plan to begin promptly, so please arrive at Pig & Fig in White Rock before 5:30pm.

Deadline: In order to give the caterer an accurate count of attendees, please, please make sure that your registration arrives no later than Monday, March 26. To register mail your check with the form below to:
